October 26-27, 2018

Sabadell, Barcelona

WELCOME

We are preparing for the upcoming Third Parc Taulí International Vascular Access Symposium, 3rd PTIVAS 2018, and we would like to invite you to share our experience in Sabadell, Barcelona, in October, 2018.

The aim of PTIVAS is try to provide comprehensive coverage of the field of vascular access in the dialysis patient in the areas of highest interest in daily clinical practice. In this edition, the purpose is to cover three main objectives: review the current state of the fundamental topics in vascular access, highlight the latest trending topics and discuss how to register vascular access activity to audit results.

The perspective of the meeting is based on a multidisciplinary approach, with the participation of nephrology, vascular surgery, interventional radiology and nursing. Main topics will be presented in round tables with invited speakers and panel discussions to encourage multidisciplinary interactions.

2018 Symposium Topic Highlights:

- Vascular Access data management
- From the patient to the multidisciplinary team
- Vascular Access Ultrasound. From mapping to surveillance
- Catheter. New challenges
- Endovascular approach. Beyond the limits
- Surgical approach. Beyond the limits
- Innovation in Vascular Access
- Vascular Access care
- Latest Best Practice Guidelines
